Argentina Summer 2010
Information Session:
Tuesday, 2/2 5 PM
Levering Hall 04B

The Program in Latin American Studies offers a 6-week Summer Program in Argentina. The program combines one course on Literature and Culture and one course on Argentine History and Politics. This program will be offered through the National University of San Martin. Students will attend classes offered by distinguished faculty and will live with Argentine families.

The courses will be complemented by several field trips around Buenos Aires. Students will attend theater, tango clubs, poetry readings, craft and book fairs, art exhibits, and experience night life.

Culture and Literature - 3 credits (taught in Spanish)
- Meets 2 times a week for 2 ½ hours each time.
- Complemented by a Spanish Workshop (Taller de Español) also held twice a week.

En la Ciudad de la Furia: Buenos Aires and Argentina Since Independence– 3 credits (taught in English)
- This class will explore the history of Argentina from its independence in 1810 to the present.
- Particular attention will be paid to Buenos Aires, which has dominated the Argentine economy as well as cultural and political life, and the relationship between the capital and the interior of Argentina.

5/31/10 – 7/9/10
Arrive 5/29/10 – Depart 7/10/10
(Dates subject to change)

Credits: 6
Fee: $7,280.00
(includes instruction, room & board, field trips, and airfare)

Requirements:
- Minimum 2 years Spanish courses at college level
- Intermediate proficiency in Spanish is recommended.
- Good academic standing.

Application Deadline:
March 15, 2010

For applications & further information contact:
Program in Latin American Studies
Macaulay Hall 405
410.516.5488
plas@jhu

Office of Study Abroad
Levering Hall 04B
410-516-7856, 7066
jhubahroad@jhu.edu

Johns Hopkins University Summer Study Abroad